E&A

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., November 17th, 1882.

Sir:

Referring to my dispatch of the 30th ultimo, instructing you to treat defaced standard silver dollars and Mexican dollars from the Assistant Treasurer at New Orleans as a part of the whole amount of uncurrent coins received from the Assistant Treasurers, and to credit the Silver Profit Fund with the differences between the value at which they were transferred and their value in subsidiary silver coin, you are hereby instructed to treat the amounts referred to as any other purchases of silver bullion and allow the profit on the coinage to show in the regular seigniorage of the month.

Very respectfully,

R. E. Preston

Acting Director

A. Loudon Snowden, Esq.,
